Annual Lotus Light Community Caring Day Celebrates Spirit of Friendship & Caring in Vancouver's DTES

Lotus Light Charity Society (Vancouver) has successfully held the first annual “Lotus Light Community Caring Day” on July 8th, 2017 at Oppenheimer Park to celebrate community caring in the heart of the downtown eastside’s Strathcona Chinatown neighborhood, to benefit the poorest members of Vancouver’s downtown eastside. This special public event is being organized by Lotus Light Charity Society and partnered with conscious corporate sponsors and community partners and to distribute food items, basic clothing and personal hygiene care packages to the area’s most vulnerable low-income families, seniors, women, children, youth and homeless.

We seek donations and corporate sponsorship support of free lunch meals and new house-hold and personal care items (i.e. blankets, linens, towels, toothbrushes and toothpaste, toiletries – shampoo and conditioner, socks, underwear, coats and rain gear, footwear, umbrellas, sports equipment, educational games, toys, children’s books, puzzles, and unexpired non-perishable food). Thank you for your generous support to help create a safer, more caring community.
